MONDAY MORNING, APRIL 6 1863

The New Civilization of the Nineteenth Century.

"The systems of labor which prevail in Europe, and which are, in many respects, more severe than ours, are so arranged as to prevent all necessity for the separation of parents and children, and of husbands and wives and a very little care upon our part would rid the system, upon which we are about to plant our national life, of these unchristian features."—Extract from Pastoral Letter of the Bishop of the Episcopal Church in the Seceded States.

The above is a frank avowal of the purpose of the South to make slavery, the system upon which national life is to be planted,—an avowal not made by politicians, but deliberately announced in general convention by prelates of a church that boasts of its refinement and christian culture. Moreover, it is a confession that the system has unchristian features, of which "a very little care" would rid it.

Now, as the system has been in operation more than a century,—as it has been every year, naturally and necessarily for its own protection, growing more severe and oppressive, we respectfully ask these venerable men, whose sincerity we do not in the least doubt, when is it probable that this very little care will begin to be exercised? Is it not incompatible with the idea of property? If a slaveholder owns a family and is ever so anxious to keep its members together, can he protect them when his estate is distributed after his death, or can they be so kept, if insolvency sends them to the sheriff's auction? The system makes the christian care impossible, and the unchristian features a necessity. It does more than this: it has made Virginia a slave-breeding State, and the Old Dominion would long since have been sunk in utter bankruptcy, but for the general business of cultivating and selling negro stock. This "very little care" is christian and philanthropic on paper, but it is utterly impracticable. Grant the right to own men and women, Right Reverend Bishops, and the privilege of selling them according to pleasure or necessity follows, and if you wish to get rid of what you so honestly and piously confess are unchristian features you can do so only by abandoning the system and by denouncing and repudiating a nation, which seeks to found its life upon a basis which rejoices in iniquity, and will die when deprived of its "unchristian features."

WHOLESOME PRIDE!—One of our peace democrats who is ashamed of the Government because it proposes to use negro soldiers in fighting rebels, also says he is opposed to the employment of mules and horses in carrying on "white men's war." He says it is degrading to our troops to be compelled to help ant mules over bad roads, and he wants white soldiers to do all the work. To be consistent, we expect he will soon think it wicked to use improved or any sort of fire arms against our "misguided Southern brethren," and will insist that if we continue the war, we shall only use our fists, no matter how many negroes, cannons, or other means they employ. Well, the man if he talks like a fool, is more frank than those who want the war to go on, but who are afraid that the use of colored troops will irritate the South and arouse prejudice at the North.

BOUNDARY OF IDAHO TERRITORY.—We find the following description of the boundary lines of the new Territory of Idaho, in a late Washington correspondence to the Sacramento Union. The lines herein described may have been changed prior to the final passage of the bill, as we have been previously informed that a change was made while the bill was before the Senate.

Commencing at the parallel of latitude 45° north, 27° west from Washington, thence west to the degree of longitude, 33° west from Washington; thence north to the 46th parallel of latitude, thence west to the western boundary of Oregon; thence south on the west boundary of Oregon to the 42d parallel of latitude; thence east to the 33° of longitude, thence south to the 41st parallel of latitude, thence east to the 27° of longitude, thence north to the place of beginning.

This does not include any portion of the mining region except Boise river and Florence City, leaving Lewiston in the old Territory.

SOLDIERS TO BE PAID MOSTLY IN COIN.—We are informed from reliable sources that Major Winston, Paymaster U. S. A., has recently received $100,000 for disbursement in this district, of which $83,200 was paid to him in coin, and $16,800 in legal tender. From this, Maj. Francis has been paid $58,200 in coin and $10,000 in pictures, so that Maj. Winston retains $45,000, all coin, except $6,800. This will be good news for the soldiers in this region, whose four months' pay will probably be about five-sixths in coin—a much larger proportion than was anticipated.

It is fortunate also for them that in this matter there will be no manipulating or transmutation, by which gold is converted into greenbacks.

Dr. H. H. King, of Jefferson, Marion county, lately had one of the fingers of his left hand entirely taken off, and the remaining fingers frightfully lacerated, by contact with a circular saw.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to March 28th!

YREKA, March [illegible]

MURFREESBORO, March 27.—A detachment of the Third Ohio Cavalry had a skirmish with a party of guerrillas in the vicinity of Readyville. The result is not known. No doubt is entertained but that our forces at Readyville, which are under the command of Gen. Hazen, are sufficiently strong to repel the attack.

Great activity has prevailed at Shelbyville and Tullahoma for the past few days, and there are certain indications of a forward movement by the enemy. Failing to draw out our army, Gen. Joe Johnston may venture a direct attack on our front and flank our position. Gen. Rosecrans, however, is fully prepared for any contingency.

There is no anxiety about the ultimate result.

NEW YORK, March 27.—A petition to the Legislature is being signed by distinguished citizens praying that the $200,000 for the Broadway railroad charter be given to the New York soldiers in the field who have received no bounty, or to the families of those who have fallen. It is believed that this will be received with enthusiasm throughout the State.

HARRISBURG, Penn., March 27.—Gov. Curtin telegraphs to day from the Army of the Potomac that he finds the army in good condition and spirits, with confidence in their chief and subordinate officers.

LOUISVILLE, March 27.—A special dispatch to the Journal says there were 80 rebel pickets in the vicinity of Danville last evening, who retreated in great disorder. The rebel force at Danville is 2,000, including the First Georgia regiment. This proves that the rumors of the rebel abandonment of the place are incorrect.

The rebel Col. Talcott, who constructed the fortifications at Yorktown and Fort Darling, was arrested in this city to-day, and placed in Fort Lafayette.

WASHINGTON, March 27.—It is apprehended in Washington to day that the rebel invasion of Kentucky has been exaggerated, and is believed that if on any scale it has been successfully checked.

All the sick and wounded of the Army of the Potomac are being brought to Alexandria and placed in the hospitals there.

No more passes will be granted to persons after to-day.

A delegation from various Indian tribes had an interview with the President to-day, in the presence of the Representatives, the diplomatic corps, and other distinguished persons. Speeches were exchanged with expressions of peace and friendship, and a promise from the President to improve their condition. Little Bear, the greatest chief there, said he would always endeavor to prevent his people from doing anything to incur our ill will, and if there was trouble it would not be owing to bad conduct on the part of the Indians. They were sorry there was great trouble now in this country between the white people.

Official orders were issued to day to finally place Western Virginia in the Middle Department, in accordance with resolutions which passed the Senate on the eve of adjournment.

The President will issue a proclamation of fasting and prayer.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—Official and private advices received from the city of Mexico to the 20th of March, speak of the certainty of success against the French invasion. The facts which the writers communicate tend to show the justness of the anticipations. So far from the French having taken the city of Mexico, as has been asserted, Gen. Foray fell back 20 miles on the 20th of February, and was within 15 miles of Puebla, but on the 20th of March he was still 18 miles away. It was, however, anticipated that Puebla would be attacked by the 15th of March. President Juarez had visited Puebla and reported the army in excellent condition. Large contingencies from the Mexican States had arrived in the city of Mexico, which would make the garrison strong enough to resist the French.

Late Richmond papers contain the following: A dispatch from Charleston of the 24th says, we have authentic reports that the fleet at Port Royal has been increased to 150 vessels, five transports having been added within the last two days.

The Whig contains a detailed rebel account of the fight at Kelley's Ford, and says that their force was from 800 to 1,000 cavalry, but that subsequently five regiments and one battery were added. They claim a victory because, as they state, the object of the raid was to frustrate the new impressment bill, which passed both houses of Congress.

The following dispatch from Mobile, of the 23d, is also published: The Jackson Appeal of the 21st says the steamer Natchez, with 1,300 bales of cotton, was destroyed by fire on the 13th, on the up trip on Yazoo river.

The Federal boats, Hartford and Monongahela, were allowed to approach within 400 yards of one of our batteries, at Grand Gulf, when they opened fire upon them, the rebels replying with broadsides, several times. A dozen shots struck the rebels. A portion were seen carrying the wounded below. No damage was sustained on our side.

The Natchez Courier says, the Hartford, with Admiral Farragut on board, anchored in front of that city on the 16th, and sent a boat with a flag of truce ashore, with a note addressed to the Mayor, stating that if the U. S. gunboats were fired on by the people of Natchez, or the guerrillas, he would bombard the city. The Hartford remained all night, and left with the Monongahela in the morning.

The following advices have been received by the Richmond press from Chattanooga, under date of the 23d: There was no movement of the army of Tennessee. Thursday the enemy had advanced on the road for Columbia, but retreated on Saturday to Franklin. Van Dorn is still on the north side of Duck river. Our forces occupy Florence and Columbia. There has been no movement of the enemy for Corinth in this direction. Morgan had a fight at Auburn on Friday, with an overwhelming force of the enemy. He fought gallantly, killing and wounding a number, but at last was forced to retreat.

The suffering for want of food is so great at Fredericksburg that the wealthiest citizens are drawing provisions from rebel commissaries.

The Arkansas planters have begged the President to suspend his proclamation for that State, or for the northern counties at least, but it was declined.

Information has been received by telegraph from Fortress Monroe of the arrival there to day of the supply steamer Massachusetts from Port Royal via Charleston, Wilmington and Beaufort. She brings confirmation of the destruction of the rebel steamer [illegible] off Long Island Beach, S. C. She was a fearful steamer and had been represented to the Navy Department as more formidable than the Alabama.

Congressman Casey, of Kentucky, arrived to-day and expressed his opinion that the rebels really meditate an invasion of that State in force. Their sympathizers expect them, and loudly boast that they will occupy the whole of Kentucky. The invasion is a necessity with them. Mr. Casey's opinion is that they have virtually lost the Mississippi river.

CAIRO, March 28.—It is reported at Memphis that divisions of troops entered the Yazoo by way of the Sunflower river, and they have landed and got to [illegible] Bend, just above Haines' Bluff, within a mile and a quarter of the rebel fortifications.

NEW YORK, March 28.—The following is additional news by the Bohemian. All the independent members of the council of the State of Poland had tendered their resignation.

The captain of the steamer Peter Hoff reports that on the night of the 24th, within 18 miles of Charleston he saw bombs flying and heard the report of heavy guns. This may indicate the beginning of an attack, but we have no further particulars.

Exchange 156@157. Gold firmer, opening at 1[illegible], closing at 4 to 4[illegible].

The steamer [illegible] from Liverpool the [illegible]th has arrived. The steamer Harkaway had arrived at Liverpool from Matamoras, with [illegible]800 bales of cotton and [illegible],000 specie.

The bark Fanny had also arrived at Queenstown from Wilmington, with a cargo of cotton and turpentine.

The diplomatic correspondence on the American war had been published.

The Adams letters refer principally to the Alabama and complain of the course of England in that matter. Mr. Mason's letters appeal for the recognition of the Confederacy, urging that the blockade be declared null and void, and is greatly dissatisfied at the refusal of his application.

The Times argues against England being held responsible for the doings of the Alabama.

Accounts from the Polish insurrection place the number of insurgents at 50,000. The Poles had defeated the Russians at Meslozina, 100 of the latter being killed. There had been great demonstrations at Marzilia in favor of Poland. The Russian consulate was threatened by a mob.

A deputation had a conference with Palmerston urging the interference of England in favor of Poland, and it is believed the war would be popular. Lord Palmerston did not commit himself.

A cabinet council was held in Paris to consider what action was necessary in regard to the Emperor Nicholas' despatches, that he would listen to no overtures so long as the Poles remained in armed insurrection.

A telegram from Cracow of the 10th, says that preparations are being made by both Poles and Russians for a grand battle.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 29th.—A New York telegram says the report of the burning of ship Regular is probably untrue.

Legal Tenders, yesterday, 69@70cts.

The route for a submarine cable from Fort Point for the new telegraph line through the coast counties, was surveyed yesterday by the Superintendent.

The steamer Brother Jonathan has arrived from Oregon.

The steamer St. Louis, from Panama, brought up all the wreck of the Golden Gate treasure. About $700,000 was attached in bank vaults. The rumor that some of the shippers agreed to compromise for fifty cents, is incorrect.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 30th.—The steamer St. Louis arrived at 6 o'clock on Saturday evening.

Information has been received of a plot concerted by Napa secessionists to capture the Government works at Mare Island. 200 men were to take the steamer Guadelupe, on Napa creek, cross to Vallejo and seize the Government works and vessels in that harbor. The vessels were to be armed with arms taken and brought down to use against San Francisco.

The Union's dispatch, dated 29th March, says: There is nothing new to be made public about contemplated rebel attack at Benecia. The Saginaw is still there. The garrison were under arms all night, with 31 rounds ball cartridges. There was much alarm in the town.

NEW PARTY.—The Union Constitutional and Emancipation Party is the name of a new political organization established in Missouri. It is pledged to gradual compensated emancipation, the support of the General Government and the formation of the southwest branch of the Pacific Railroad.

PRIZES.—The Secretary reported, February 18th, in answer to a resolution of the House of Representatives, the number of prizes captured by our navy, which amount to three hundred and sixty seven; of those one hundred and eighteen were condemned and sold for $2,026,449.

The subscriber assures his patrons that his charges are but $1.50 per ton per month storage and although storage in wooden buildings is $1.00 per ton, yet the public cannot fail to perceive the advantages the subscriber possesses over other warehouses of this place.

INDUCED by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters (purely vegetable), hosts of ignorant Quacks and unscrupulous adventurers have opened upon suffering humanity the flood gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor Whisky, vilely compounded with injurious drugs, and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of Alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles and big bellied kegs, under the modest appellation of Bitters; which instead of curing, only aggravate disease, and leave the disappointed sufferer in despair.

Hoofland's German Bitters!

Are not a new and untried article, but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public, and their reputation and sale are not rivaled by any similar preparation.

The proprietors have thousands of letters from the most eminent

CLERGYMEN,
LAWYERS,
PHYSICIANS
and CITIZENS,

Testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

Do you want something to strengthen you?
Do you want a good appetite?
Do you want to build up your constitution?
Do you want to feel well?
Do you want to get rid of nervousness?
Do you want energy?
Do you want to sleep well?
Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?
If so, use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters at the beginning of the present year was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I, therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them. J. NEWTON BROWN.
PHILADELPHIA, June 23, 1861.

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whisky or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has caused, and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result of it is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt. Get One Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whiskey, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS.

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine-tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters."

PHILADELPHIA, August 23, 1862.

Messrs Jones & Evans—Well, gentlemen your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the steamer State of Maine, from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances, and, accordingly the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me as a forlorn hope to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to life.

CITY.

The MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City.

CITY NOMINATIONS.—At a meeting of the citizens of Portland, held at the Court House on Sunday evening, the following nominations were made for city officers for the ensuing year:

For Mayor—J. B. Congle
For Recorder—Levi Anderson;
For Marshal—F. M. Arnold,
For Treasurer—H. B. Morse,
For Assessor—F. C. Pomeroy
H. W. CORBETT, Chairman
E. W. McGRAW, Sec'y

We presume the above nominations will meet the hearty approbation of our citizens. Mr. Congle is one of our most intelligent, honest and practical business men and is moreover not without experience in the duties of the office to which he is nominated. We should have been pleased if Mr. McCoy, the present faithful Recorder had been continued in his position, for we are not disposed to favor frequent changes, without cause in such offices, and Mr. McCoy in our judgment had a peculiar claim upon the sympathies of our citizens. The meeting, however deemed Mr. Anderson's nomination expedient, and if elected we have no doubt he will serve the city faithfully. The other names are well known, and are entirely satisfactory.

In the First Ward, Messrs. Schuyler, Cook and R. R. Thompson were nominated for the Council; in the Third Ward, Messrs. Gray, [illegible] Silver and Estes.

[illegible] ASYLUM.—Few of our citizens have [illegible] conception of the improvements, [illegible] and prospective grandeur and [illegible] of the Oregon State Insane Asylum [illegible] by Messrs. Hawthorne & Loryea, [illegible] the fact that it is almost in sight of [illegible]. None but those who have visited and [illegible] this institution could hardly be made to believe the present state of [illegible] and usefulness it has already [illegible] the beautiful and pleasant summer [illegible] adjacent grounds will afford to all [illegible] seek its quiet and cooling shades. [illegible] will not permit us at this time to [illegible] description of the building, [illegible] improvements in course of construction, but we shall do so ere long. There are now twenty-eight State patients in the [illegible] and one private patient, all of whom [illegible] well treated and properly provided [illegible] all the advantages and comforts it [illegible] to bestow upon these poor unfortunate creatures. Perfect silence and well [illegible] discipline seems to reign throughout [illegible] such so that a visitor would scarcely [illegible] there was above half a dozen inmates [illegible] the premises. One of the greatest [illegible] attending this institution is its pure [illegible] air and water, the latter being [illegible] arranged throughout the whole [illegible]. The water is supplied by means of a large and perfectly working hydraulic ram, set near the fountain head of several large and sparkling springs of as pure and delicious water as ever gushed from a mountain side. The institution is a credit to [illegible] an honor to its proprietors, and a [illegible] to unfortunate humanity.

SOLD AT AUCTION.—The real estate property of the late Buell Woodard sold at auction [illegible] Saturday by Mr. Richardson, brought the following prices: Lots 1, 2, 6 and 8, in Block 9, with improvements, including the [illegible] and garden, was purchased for [illegible]. South half of lot 5, in Block 3, and [illegible] part of the rear of north half of Lot 5, in Block 3, being 25 feet north and south, and 30 feet east and west, upon which is situated the store of Mr. De Witt, sold in one parcel for $3,400. We believe this property was sold cheap.

CIDER.—Mr. W. P. Watkins will accept the thanks of the typos of this office for a pitcher of excellent cider which "wasn't bad to take." Such friends are not soon forgotten.

EXAMINATION OF BETH ISRAEL SCHOOL.—The examination of the pupils of the Beth Israel school, will be held in the Synagogue to-day, commencing at 9 o'clock A. M. The English department will be examined in the forenoon, and the German and Hebrew in the afternoon, commencing at 1 o'clock. Rhetorical exercises between 3 and 4 o'clock P. M. Parents and friends are invited to attend.

SALE OF CROCKERY.—Do not forget M. Mansfield's large sale of crockery and other merchandise, at auction, to commence at ten o'clock this morning. A rare opportunity is offered to those who wish to purchase fine articles cheap.

SECOND WARD.—No nominations were made for Councilmen in the Second Ward, last Saturday, but we understand that Messrs. P. Wasserman, T. L. Watson and Robert Porter, are to be brought out this morning. They are all good men.

SCHOOL MEETING.—A meeting will be held this evening at the Public School house to elect School Directors for the ensuing year.

FINAL CARD OF THE REBELS.—The Richmond Enquirer of Feb. 19th, after surveying in a very gloomy way, the various positions of the Federal armies, all of which it admits are threatening and perilous, concludes in the following strain:

> Where, in all this wide circuit, does the invasion seem to be failing, or giving ground? All round the border, and in the very heart of the Confederacy, the foot of the enemy is planted, and his felon flag flies and it means subjugation and extermination. It is, indeed, the third stage of the war, and we believe the last, but the struggle will be desperate. If it be the "last card" it is one in which the stake is life or death, honor or shame—either our name and nation will be extinguished in a night of blood and horror, or else a new sovereignty, the newest, fairest, proudest, will take her seat among the powers of the earth, with the applause of man and the blessings of heaven.

SEWING MACHINES
[illegible] simplicity of construction [illegible] in working and will do
IN A PERFECT MANNER,
A greater range of work than any other machine.
The value of a Sewing Machine cannot be estimated by the amount of wood, iron, brass or steel used in its construction, but by the manner in which these materials are put together, and the quantity and quality of the work it turns out. You can buy a watch or a piano-forte for very little money, but if you want either for your own use you wish an article which can be relied upon, and you will purchase accordingly.
LADD & WEBSTER'S
use a straight needle; curved ones are liable to break.
They make a tight lock stitch, alike on both sides of the work, which cannot be ravelled.
Every machine is sent from our office threaded, and with work under the needle ready for operation, accompanied with such explicit printed instructions as will enable persons who may never have seen a machine to teach themselves.

DR. BAKER'S
PAIN PANACEA.
Is composed entirely of healing gums, and vegetable oils and herbs. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I can truly and sincerely say that I have never known any however delicate, to be injured by it in the least. I will continue to ask those afflicted who have not used it, to try it for the following diseases. If they are not satisfied with its healing power the money will be cheerfully returned by the agent where the medicine is for sale.
If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally, bathe externally over the parts affected and it will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain.
If you have a Bruise or Wound bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day. It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison and heal the wound in a short time.
If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely and take a dose of it internally morning and night. It will not only cure the pain but will remove the cause of the disease.
If you have the Dyspepsia and your food distresses your stomach after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.
If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day.
If you have the Diarrhœa or a relaxed state of the bowels take a dose of Pain Panacea and they will soon be restored. If you have a painful swelling, bathe the parts freely and you will soon relieve pain, and the swelling will be reduced.
If you have a severe tooth-ache, apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton and bathe gum at the same time, it will stop the pain instantly.
If you have a pain in the Breast, Side, Back or Kidneys, bathe parts affected morning and night, at the same time take a teaspoonful of Panacea internally.
If a Mother has a caked breast, apply the Panacea as hot as it can be borne.
If you feel chilly or cold, as though you were going to have a fever, take a dose of Panacea.
If you have a wound, cut or galls upon your horse, apply the Pain Panacea; it will take out all the inflammation and heal the sore in a short time.

The Morning Paper

BY A JOUR PRINTER

The rich man sleeps in his chamber warm
With never a dread of hurt or harm
And the step on the pavement does not alarm,
'Tis the Hand on the Morning Paper

The merchant unfolds the still damp sheet
Nor thinks the tread in the silent street
Heard shortly since, were the weary feet
Of the Hand on the Morning Paper

He seeks his home through the sleet and snow
No fire to cheer with its ruddy glow
Such luxury is not for those who go
From work on the Morning Paper

The nights are long, the days are drear—
Thus it goes on from year to year
No hope for those whose eyes still blear—
They work on the Morning Paper

Thus will it be till the time to go
From this world of care that is here below
To the home above that are reserved we know—
For the Hand on the Morning Paper

And that step we soon shall cease to hear—
A form goes by on the lowly bier,
He served you well—kindly drop a tear—
'Tis the Hand on the Morning Paper

A Visit to the Maelstrom

If you take a map and turn to the western coast of Norway, in the sixty eighth degree of latitude, you will find traced thereon the name of the largest and most terrible whirlpool in the known world This Maelstrom, sometimes called Moskoe-strom, is about a mile and a half in diameter, and its vortex has an inclination of forty-five degrees, or about that of water in a large tunnel when half run out. It is so powerfully destructive, that the largest vessel ever constructed, if once fairly caught in its whirl, would be no more than a mere feather Everything that enters it is crushed and torn to pieces, and mighty timbers are sent out all broken and covered with splinters like feathers Nothing has ever been known to enter it and return with life. The largest whale, when caught within its furious, foaming waters, goes down with the most awful roarings and bellowings, only to be thrown out again, an inanimate, pulpy mass.

The cause of this immense whirlpool has been variously stated—but it is only guess-work and theory after all Some have thought there is a subterranean passage, and that the waters come out at a great distance, one writer even giving the gulf of Bothnia for their terminus. Others, again, and with more plausibility, argue that the whirl is solely the effect of the waters of the tide, during its ebb and flow, being pent up by ledges of rocks, over which they fall with the velocity of a cataract, and assume the gyratory movement in their efforts to escape or reach a level. From the fact that the great whirlpool is only six hours in motion at one time, with a perfect lull of fifteen minutes at the turn of the tide, I am inclined to the latter hypothesis.

But be the cause what it may, the Maelstrom itself is terrible beyond description—the thundering roar of its waters can be heard for miles, and on one occasion, it is stated "it raged with such noise and impetuosity, that on the island of Moskoe the very stones of the houses fell to the ground."

Well do I remember the wonder and awe excited in my youthful breast by a description of this fearful phenomenon, and the pictures of youthful fancy are yet fresh in my recollections of some homeward bound vessel, freighted with happy souls, being caught within the great circle of these whirling waters and hurled downward to destruction, amid the wildest shrieks of terror and the most fervent prayers for salvation. Little did I then think that I should ever behold that dreadful whirlpool myself, and least of all that I should ever have the temerity to voluntarily venture upon its awful brink, sail round with its circling waters, and gaze down into its hissing, foaming, roaring, horrible depths.

Business of a commercial nature led me to visit some of the ports of Norway and the Loffoden Islands, and, being within easy reach of this wonder of the world, I became possessed with a great desire to see it for myself. In conversation with an old Norwegian fisherman, I learned, to my great surprise, that he had more than once ventured across it, with a strong breeze, during its regular lull at the turn of the tide.

"And how did you feel at such times?" inquired I, with a great deal of curious interest.

"Well, I don't know that it made any particular difference in my feelings," replied the man, in a matter-of-fact way. "We fishermen get so used to dangers of all kinds, that one or two, more or less, hardly seems to be worth speaking about. We always carry our lives in our hands, and naturally expect to leave our bodies in the sea sometime and for what I can understand, a man may as well go down in a whirlpool as in a tempest It's only death at last, and death must come to all, at one time or another, whether afloat or ashore — For my part, I think it's quicker and easier work to be drowned than to linger along with some painful disease and die at last"

"I doubt not your philosophy is the best for one engaged in your perilous profession" returned I, "but for all that, I am not prepared to say that I could meet a sudden death with your resignation."

"That I suppose is because it don't all the time stare you in the face, as it does us," rejoined the old fisherman. "When you leave your friends—your wife and children, if you've got any—you probably calculate the chances to be in your favor of returning to them again; but I always bid mine good-bye with a hope based upon great uncertainty, and though I've lived, as you see, to be pretty well in years, it has always been with a sort of expectation that every cruise would be my last. I think it's best to be prepared for the worst, and then, if the worst don't come, we're always the happier for it, you know"

"But to return to the dangers of this Maelstrom, which I have an almost irresistible desire to visit," said I, "do you think I might venture near it without any unusual risk?"—I will admit, to begin with, that there is danger in the attempt—and so for that matter, there was in my coming here, and will be in my sailing from here for my native land—but what I wish to know is, if I may venture near the whirlpool—near enough to behold it in all its terrific sublimity—without laying myself open to the censure of fool hardiness?"

"Yes, I think you may," replied the old fisherman, thoughtfully, "provided you have a good, trim, easily managed schooner, a favorable breeze and a careful, experienced pilot."

"Where can I find and charter such a craft?"

"Why, if your honor wishes it," said the old man, doffing his hat, and quietly smoothing down his silver locks, "I think I might furnish you something to your liking and offer myself as pilot providing we can agree upon terms, which shall not be at all exorbitant".

I looked steadily for a few moments at his calm, weather beaten face and clear eye, and felt that he was a man for my purpose

"I will listen to your terms," said I

TO THE PUBLIC

OF THE

PACIFIC COAST!

HOSTETTER'S

STOMACH BITTERS!

THE LARGE AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING DEMAND for HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, on the Pacific coast renders it the especial duty of the Manufacturers and Proprietors to place their fellow-citizens west of the Rocky Mountains fully on their guard against the PERNICIOUS COUNTERFEITS which have recently been introduced in California and other parts of the Pacific coast, by IMPOSTERS who have PIRATED this great RESTORATIVE

These villains who subsist by pirating have exhibited a cunning equal to their rascality, by selecting this most popular STOMACH BITTERS Some dealers of whom better things might have been expected, have connived at the IMPOSITION for the purpose of sharing in the plunder. On the principle that the receiver is as culpable as the thief and that the passer of spurious money is as criminal as the forger, the makers and venders of COUNTERFEIT HOSTETTER'S BITTERS stand on the same moral level.

The public are cautioned not to purchase any preparation purporting to be HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS without first scrutinizing well the packages and bottles, so as to be certain that they get the GENUINE, or purchase from Dealers of known integrity, who would not be guilty of selling SPURIOUS ARTICLES, or of the California Agent Messrs Hostetter Smith & Dean No 217 [illegible] street Russ Block San Francisco,

The COUNTERFEITERS doubtless hoped and expected, that at a distance of thousands of miles away from the source of the GENUINE BITTERS they would be able to palm off their SPURIOUS COMPOUND with less chance of detection and more success In this expectation they will be deceived. The undersigned are determined to protect themselves against fraud and their customers against its baneful consequences and have no doubt that through their agents the influence of the press and the instrumentality of the law they will succeed in crushing IMPOSTERS in its distant fields of operation as they have already crushed it nearer home

The general acceptance of the BITTERS as the best known preventive [illegible] the malarious diseases of unhealthy soils and climates, is a just tribute to the [illegible] and vitalizing properties of the preparation. Whoever goes to the gold mines or travels through or settles in [illegible] without previously furnishing himself with a supply of this unapproachable antidote to the effects of insalubrious air and bad water, does so at the imminent risk of health and life [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the most [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] with this preventive [illegible] his search for gold [illegible] [illegible] water [illegible] to quench his thirst [illegible] mixed with this powerful [illegible] corrective, and [illegible] the mining regions will have no injurious effect upon his system if [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] diarrhea, dysentery [illegible] [illegible] of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS Miners and [illegible] chiefly on animal food [illegible] as a protective against scurvy and other scorbutic [illegible]
